Re: Advanced Video Technologies, LLC v. Research In Motion, Ltd., et al. Case No. 11-cv-8908;
Advanced Video Technologies, LLC v. HTC Corporation, et al. Case No. 11-cv-06604;
Advanced Video Technologies, LLC v. Motorola Mobility Inc. Case No. 12-cv-00918

Dear Judge McMahon:

I write on behalf of all of the parties in the above captioned cases to respectfully request a new date for oral argument, which the Court has set for December 21, 2012 at 10:00 am.

Counsel for the parties have several personal conflicts on December 21, 2012, including long-standing travel plans of the undersigned counsel. Counsel for the parties have conferred and all of the parties have consented to rescheduling the hearing to January 4, 2013, if the Court is available. Accordingly, the parties in the above referenced cases respectfully request that the Court reschedule oral argument to January 4, 2013, or to a later date at the Court's convenience.

In addition, the parties respectfully request clarification that oral argument will be held on the parties' pending claim construction motions, and not on third-party defendant Texas Instruments' motion to dismiss. The parties would also greatly appreciate any guidance from the Court regarding the expected length and format of oral argument.

Respectfully submitted,

Dominic E. Massa

cc: Orville R. Cockings (counsel for Advanced Video Technologies, LLC)
 Richard M. Lehrer (counsel for Advanced Video Technologies, LLC)
 D. Clay Holloway (counsel for Motorola Mobility)
 Heidi Lyn Keefe (counsel for HTC Corporation)
 Deepro R. Mukerjee (counsel for Texas Instruments)

This will be the focus of the argument

but I would like to address TI motion as well
